No	MCQ Question (With Four Options)		Correct Answer		Answer Details
	In English	Hindi	A	Correct Answer Hindi	Reference / Source of correct Answer	Explanations	Type of Questions – Easy/Tough (E/T)
1	Which one is correct about NCO (National Classification of Occupations)? a) The first effort in the direction of preparing an occupational classification system in India was made by the then Directorate General of Resettlement and Employment, DGRE (later called the Directorate General of Employment and Training (DGE&T) and now referred to as Directorate General of Training (DGT)) in 1946. b) International Labour Organization (ILO) brought out the first International Standard Classification of Occupations (ISCO) in 1968. c) It was done with a view to bring out a complete occupational classification system, which could help in promoting industrial growth. d) CSO accordingly took up the work of preparing an NCO on the lines of ISCO and brought out "National Classifications of Occupations – 1958".	एनसीओ (व्यवसायों का राष्ट्रीय वर्गीकरण) के बारे में कौन सा सही है? ए) भारत में एक व्यावसायिक वर्गीकरण प्रणाली तैयार करने की दिशा में पहला प्रयास तत्कालीन महानिदेशालय और रोजगार, डीजीआरई (बाद में रोजगार और प्रशिक्षण महानिदेशालय (डीजीई और टी) कहा जाता है और अब इसे महानिदेशालय और प्रशिक्षण (डीजीटी) 1946 में बी) अंतर्राष्ट्रीय श्रम संगठन (आईएलओ) ने 1968 में व्यवसायों का पहला अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मानक वर्गीकरण (आईएससीओ) लाया। सी) यह एक पूर्ण व्यावसायिक वर्गीकरण प्रणाली लाने के लिए किया गया था, जो औद्योगिक विकास को बढ़ावा देने में मदद कर सकता है।	A	ए	https://www.ncs.gov.in/hi-in/Documents/NCO%20-%202015.pdf	The first effort in the direction of preparing an occupational classification system in India was made by the then Directorate General of Resettlement and Employment, DGRE (later called the Directorate General of Employment and Training (DGE&T) and now referred to as Directorate General of Training (DGT)) in 1946.	T